Cornell collaborator celebrates bird sights, sounds at ‘Ding’ lecture

Photographer, cinematographer, and sound recordist Gerrit Vyn travels the world to document the lives of birds for the Cornell Lab of Ornithology in Ithaca, N.Y. A new book created for the lab’s 100-year anniversary, The Living Bird: 100 Years of Listening to Nature, explores man’s joyful and complex relationship with birds.

Vyn will illustrate the major themes covered in the book and share many of his powerful images and video recordings from the field during two free presentations at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Friday, April 7, as part of the 2017 “Ding” Darling Lecture Series at J.N. “Ding” Darling National Wildlife Refuge on Sanibel Island.

In The Living Bird, Vyn’s images -- along with thoughtful and inspiring essays by writers including Barbara Kingsolver, Jared Diamond, Scott Weidensaul, and lab director John Fitzpatrick -- take readers on a visual and experiential journey revealing the life-changing role that birds can play in our understanding of the natural world.

Following his presentations, Vyn will be signing copies of the book, which are available for purchase in the Refuge Nature Store, proceeds from which benefit wildlife, research, and education at “Ding” Darling.

HighTower/Thomas & Swartz Wealth Management sponsors the free 12-lecture series with support from the “Ding” Darling Wildlife Society-Friends of the Refuge (DDWS). The season’s remaining schedule is listed below. Book signings follow all the lectures.

Seating for the lectures in the “Ding” Darling Visitor & Education Center Auditorium is limited and available on a first-come basis. Arrive one hour early to assure a place to sit. Early arrivals can save one seat each and then may explore the Visitor & Education Center or Indigo Trail before the lecture starts. Saved seats must be filled 15 minutes before lecture time.

As usual, Wildlife Drive closes on Friday, but visitors are welcome to enjoy the center, Indigo Trail, and recreational opportunities at Tarpon Bay Explorers, the refuge’s official recreation concession located at its Tarpon Bay Recreation Area.

Note: Opinions expressed in guest lectures do not necessarily reflect the views of refuge and DDWS management, staff, and board of directors.
